

HND Health Care Management

Course Overview & Study Guide

Note: This document is an academic study guide produced by UNEE based on the official HND examination framework. It is not an official government syllabus. For the official syllabus, contact the Ministry of Higher Education, Cameroon.

About HND Health Care Management

Managing a health facility requires skills in finance, human resources, project management, and health systems. HCM graduates manage the administrative and operational side of healthcare delivery.

The program covers health financing, HR management in health settings, health delivery systems, and project development.

With Cameroon's health system expanding, HCM graduates are in demand across government hospitals, private clinics, and NGO health programmes.
