

HND Special and Inclusive Education

Course Overview & Study Guide

Note: This document is an academic study guide produced by UNEE based on the official HND examination framework. It is not an official government syllabus. For the official syllabus, contact the Ministry of Higher Education, Cameroon.

About HND Special and Inclusive Education

The 2025 Special and Inclusive Education program has been significantly expanded to include American Sign Language, Braille Transcribing, Mental Health and Autism, and Community Based Rehabilitation.

SPE graduates can work with deaf students, blind students, students with autism, and those requiring community rehabilitation.

Demand for qualified special education professionals is growing with government commitments to inclusive education.
